US BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WI

4 MARC RASSBACH,
5
6 Creditor
7 William Foley
8 Debtor

) Case No.: 14-31425-PP
)
) Motion for Sanctions under Rule
) 11 due to Debtor William Foley
) being a vexious litigant in the ) form of lifetime bar from ) filing Federal Court related
) paperwork without Courts ) permission.

10
11 As a creditor of Mr. Foley AND having spent the time and effort to 12 examine the public record of Mr. Foley Creditor Marc Rassbach now
13 moves The Court to consider Debtor William Foley in violation of 14 Rule 11 and asks for the relief of ALL Creditors that Debtor
15 William Foley be forbidden to file anything in the Federal Court
16 system until the day of his death and may only be released from 17 this restriction once Debtor William Foley has filled out all
18 Bankruptcy forms correctly and in such a manner where his answers
19 match the existing answers in the public record or a full
20 explanation for any difference be given therein. Once submitted to 21 the Court and approved may filing of a case proceed.
22

24
25 The purpose of a Court is to be a forum where the truth is 26 ascertained. The reason for filling out the forms is to get to 27 the truth so a wise and fair decision can be made. Part of the 28

1 reason for the timely filling out of forms is to avoid Rule 11
2 section B (1) "increasing the cost of litigation;" The legal style
3 of Debtor William Foley grabbing the wrist of Debtor William
4 Foley's legal opponents then slashing both Debtor William Foley's
5 and Creditors wrists and seeing who bleeds out first should come to 6 an end.
7

8
9 Requesting a Judge to return property like the automobile which 10 seems to have never been Debtor William Foley's based on what 11 appears to be a correct title should stand as an example of what 12 injustice the Court could do without proper examination into the 13 claims made.
14

16 The totality of the Bankruptcy filings of Mr. Foley related cases
17 shows a lack of commitment to the Bankruptcy process. The actions
18 in THIS case show a lack of commitment to the Bankruptcy process.
19 The actions in other Courts should be considered as a professional
20 courtesy but would seem to run afoul of standing and jurisdictional
21 issues.

23
24 Creditor Marc Rassbach would happily withdraw this Motion if Debtor
25 William Foley was to fill out the required paperwork for 14-31425-
26 pp fully and such that all answers are in compliance with past
27 public statements on each item. At the last Creditors meeting
28

1 Foley was asked to submit corrections and the only correction given
2 to date has been the addition of "Suite 300" to the existing 3 record.

4
5 Given the above Creditor Marc Rassbach now moves this honorable
6 Court to grant the relief sought.
